You are cordially invited to take advantage of the opportunity to exhibit at the Indiana Rural Health Association (IRHA) Annual Conference taking place June 16 to 17, 2020, at the French Lick Springs Resort and Conference Center, 8670 West State Road 56, French Lick, Indiana. Exhibit levels/fees are listed below. The Conference is designed to provide healthcare leaders in rural/small communities of Indiana with networking and educational opportunities, as well as renewed motivation to tackle their challenging jobs. Last year, more than 550 healthcare providers, government representatives, rural community leaders, educators, healthcare businesses and students attended the Conference.

Although the exhibit day is one day (June 16), we encourage you to stay for the entire Conference and attend all sessions and networking opportunities.
